WORK EXPERIENCE

15/06/2010 – CURRENT

Lawyer

Di Giura Law Firm

- International Human Rights Lawyer - Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs – Peacebuilding Advisor - Rule of Law - Director of DIU FF.AA. ex art. 6 I Additional Prot. Geneva Convention
- Labour Lawyer, particularly engaged in defending the health of workers in the workplace
- Management
- 231/01 Specialist - Design, implementation, audit and supervision of organization, management and control models

He has gained skills that can be traced back to two macro areas of specialization:

- of international and international humanitarian law: it actively works in the field of protection of the rights guaranteed by the "European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms", both through the promotion of the ECHR and the filing of appeals before the Court European Union (ECHR) based in Strasbourg, which through participation in the "Forensic Union for the Protection of Human Rights" of which he has been a member for several years.

Thanks also to the experiences of volunteering, it operates in multinational contexts such as the Red Cross and CISOM, which have made it possible to articulate the deepening of the legislation on international cooperation, international humanitarian law and rescue at sea.

In 2016, as Logista CISOM - Italian Relief Corps of the Order of Malta, he took part in SAR operations in the Sea Mediterraneo for the rescue of migrants aboard the patrol boats of the Coast Guard and the Guardia di Finanza;

- company labor law, thanks to the training and work experiences in the field of labor and social security law, the protection of health and the healthy environment in both civil and criminal matters. He has a consolidated experience in labor and social security litigation, at every stage.

It provides extrajudicial and judicial advice and assistance to employers and workers in disputes and issues arising from the management of subordinate, para-subordinate and self-employed private employment relationships, from the negotiation phase to the pathological phase.

He deals in particular with occupational diseases and accidents at work and differential damage.

He assists workers and associations constituted civil parties in various and important proceedings in the field of asbestos and for the restoration of damage deriving from exposure to toxic and noxious substances (work and environmental).

He is the lawyer of several associations that protect health in the workplace.

He has participated in hearings in parliamentary committees on the subject of accidents at work and has participated in the drafting of the technical report of various bills for the protection of health in the workplace.

He is a Business Consultant and 231 Specialist: he advises on the definition of governance structures.

Soft Skills

He has a particular propensity for listening; years of experience in multicultural environments have developed good skills of empathy, still managing to remain impartial and aloof in the final decisions.

In the years of profession carried out in different business and cultural contexts is it was necessary to develop adaptability and above all capacity negotiation, which made it possible to reach agreements favorable for their clients.

The transversal skills and the different approaches needed have allowed to develop an already innate capacity for analysis and consideration of alternative solutions, also favored by studies in-depth analysis of scenario analyzes in the most disparate contexts.
